

Great Things in Garwood

Joe Satriano, founder of The Susan Satriano Memorial Foundation, presented four Arthur L. Johnson High School seniors with The Susan Satriano Memorial Scholarship Award last week. The students: Jackie Marcino, Jesse Crowley, Brianna Monaco and Sharon Burk each received college scholarship money. The Susan Satriano Memorial Foundation has awarded $75,000 in scholarship money to dozens of students. To be eligible for The Susan Satriano Memorial Scholarship Award, students must be a graduating high school senior preparing to go to an accredited college in the fall. They also, unfortunately, must have a parent who is presently battling cancer or has recently passed away of it. ## Enter summer photo contest

Amateur photographers are encouraged to enter photographs in the Fourth Annual Summer Photo Contest sponsored by Assemblyman Jon Bramnick's office.

There will be three categories for this year's competition: New Jersey Shore, State Parks and Wildlife. The contest is open to all ages and entries will be accepted until the Sept. 9 deadline. Contestants should submit their work via email to: [asmb Bramnick@njleg.org](mailto:asmb Bramnick@njleg.org).

"The contest goes hand in hand with summer fun, and it is a great way to celebrate the beauty of New Jersey," Assemblyman Bramnick said.

With three categories, shutterbugs can take their cameras to the boardwalks, beaches, and amusement parks, or they can go on the trails at the State Park, historic sites or even their own backyards to photograph their favorite critters.

The photographs will be judged for their quality and creativity. The winners and prizes will be announced in September.
